WATCH FOR TOMORROW'S LEDGER!

Uncle Sam to Be Sued For Millions By Brazilian Importers.

A Washington special to The Commercial Gazette says as a result of the abrogation of the reciprocity treaty between the United States and Brazil numerous suits will be brought against the United States by Brazilian importers on those goods imported since the taking effect of the new tariff bill.

Duties have been levied under that law, which would otherwise have been free from duty.

These suits will in the total reach a million or over, which will be the cost of abrogation of the treaty by an incompetent Democratic Congress, without giving the required three months notice provided for in the treaty.

The claims will not be made by Brazil as a Government, but by individual importers of Brazilian goods.

The first step toward making the claims will be by filing protests with the Treasury Department against the exaction of duties.

The claims will involve a test of the right of Congress to pass a law which violates what it will be asserted is a contract provision of a treaty.

In the exchange of official notes leading up to the treaty Minister Mendonça of Brazil wrote to Secretary Blaine that the treaty would be proclaimed "with the understanding that the commercial arrangement thus put in operation shall remain in force so long as neither Government shall definitely, three months in advance, inform the other of its intention and decision to consider it at an end at the expiration of the time indicated, provided, however, that the termination of the commercial arrangement shall begin to take effect either on the first day of January or the first day of July."

Secretary Blaine's official note repeated the above language and stated that the arrangement would not be terminated except on "at least three months notice."

The official notes were made a part of the commercial arrangement and the President's proclamation.

Notwithstanding this provision, the new Tariff Law abrogates all reciprocity treaties, except that with Hawaii, without notice.

Efforts were made to have a provision inserted which would allow the three months notice to Brazil, in accordance with the treaty. Chairman Wilson, it is said, would have secured the insertion of this provision had not the Tariff Bill become so involved in conference that no changes could be made.

As the three months notice provided by the original arrangement was ignored, it is contended that the Brazilian imports have a right to enjoy the rates given by the treaty up to January 1st, and that the duties collected in the meantime are illegal.

For that reason protests will be made on the payment of duties and claims subsequently presented to the Courts.

HOW THE DEMOCRATS HAVE THROWN THEM AWAY.

They Talk About Increasing Our Foreign Trade and Then Deliberately Destroy Reciprocity—Some Hard Hits.

At the manufacturing city of New Albany, Ind., a few days since ex-President Harrison had something to say about the new Democratic Tariff Law, and this is part of his speech:

"The Democrats have been talking a good deal about getting the markets of the world. Let us stop and think just for a little while about this theory. Where are these markets? Are they in Africa? Well, Africa does not offer per capita anything like as attractive a market as America. Here we clothe ourselves all over, and they don't there. [Laughter.] Are these markets in Asia? Well, there are some markets there, and there are some markets in Africa that are valuable, and in which we already have a share; but I ask you to remember this fact if we are to compete for these markets—that the great European Nations have got possession of all that country. This has been done without consulting the inhabitants. Not only that, but these countries are pursuing in every other part of the world a colonizing policy. They are taking up every island that they can find. England has Australia, continental in size and resources; she has India; she has had for years African possessions, and they are now greatly extended. This thing gives her and those other Nations great advantages in the commerce of the world over the United States. We have never had a colonizing policy, and probably never will have one. Indeed, we have been so narrow in our views upon this question that we could not even take in the Sandwich Islands when her people asked it."

I do not say that I approve of this anti-colonial policy, carried to that extent. I am only making the point now that these colonial possessions have been established with a view of extending the English, German, French and Italian trade, and that they secure to the Nation that has established them a great advantage over the United States.

The speaker further showed that by the free trade policy, which he said had increased their already great advantage. Continuing, he said:

"Now there was a part of the world where this selfish policy which we great Americans, 'if we let our hands be put in utter disregard to the rights of the natives, pushing their trade on the point of the bayonet, has not been put into effect—one part of the earth upon which they have not been permitted to lay their hands. The Monroe doctrine, expressed with quietness and yet with courage, and adhered to in our American diplomacy since the time of its promulgation has preserved the states of Central and South America from European aggression. The peoples of these countries are friendly to us. They stand in good relation to us geographically, and we ought to have had their trade; and my friends, by the reciprocity provisions of McKinley Bill we had made a start. It was a simple start, the suggestion was made, and you know how ardently and zealously it was urged by Mr. Blaine, that we should say to those people of South America, 'If we let your goods into this country free of duty, you must let some of our products into your countries free of duty, or at favored rates.'"

These Nations promptly came forward and commercial arrangements for free trade were not properly treaties—were made with them. Here were markets of the world that we not only could get, but that we had gotten, and we had obtained them without inflicting any injury on the American workman, the American farmer or the American manufacturer.

Now, my friends, you will be surprised to know that these gentlemen who are so anxious to get the markets of the world, in making this Tariff Bill, which has recently become a law, struck down these reciprocity arrangements, abrogated every one of them. I think the American people should call to account a party that so wantonly and uselessly abandoned markets that we had already owned."

VIC-PRESIDENT STEVENSON made a speech at St. Louis, Ill., in which he said that the Sugar Trust had gone to the wall, and that "sugar would be cheaper than in twenty years." THE LEDGER claims to be just as good at guessing as the Vice-President, and it will bet him a stick of molasses candy that sugar will not be permanently as cheap under the McKinley Tariff as it was under the

AFTER all, it doesn't appear that the new Democratic Tariff Bill is likely open to us the "markets of the world." Quite the reverse. For since the German Ambassador at Washington has filed a protest against the discrimination he alleges is made against German beet sugar, the Austrian Minister has intimated that his country will follow suit. Spain is seeking through her Minister to secure a new treaty by which Cuban sugar will gain special advantages.

Under these circumstances it is believed that the President, when he comes to review our foreign relations in his annual message to Congress, may call the attention of Congress to the protests of Germany and other countries, and the desirability of modifying the Tariff Law to some extent.

An official of the Agricultural Department probably would be disastrous on the export trade from the United States to Germany. He pointed out that under the existing treaty American meat products, live stock and "The American Hog" had been given a market in Germany, after years of effort in that direction. Last year the export of meat products alone reached approximately 15,000,000 pounds, an increase of 300 per cent. from the year previous. A similar advance had been made in our export of lard and breadstuffs. Last year American flour sold in Berlin for the first time, in competition with Hungarian flour. Corn meal, wheat and some rye have also been exported under the treaty arrangement. For this reason officials of the Agricultural Department hope that legislation may be had that will insure a maintenance of our present commercial relations with Germany. Meanwhile nothing can be done to change the status of sugars from bounty export countries until Congress meets.

The one thing that Democrats persist in lying about is that a Tariff on foreign goods brought to America prevents us from shipping American goods to foreign markets—the "markets of the world," if you please. If any one is fool enough to believe such a lie, perhaps the German-American tangle which the new Democratic Tariff has developed may scratch the scales out of his eyes.

OUR cherished friend, the Editor of The Bulletin, has been "prating" a good deal about the price of cotton. Of course, THE LEDGER will not attempt to say that Br'er Rabbit isn't thoroughly posted on the subject; but there is before us a copy of The New Orleans Pleasure, which may know a little bit about cotton, and in it we find the following:

Hon. GEORGE W. HARPER, under the caption of "Now and Then," in a communication over his own signature in The Raymond Gazette, gives the following interesting historical facts:

"Cotton now sells in Raymond at a very low figure. The rate is somewhere between 5 and 6 cents, and frequently the remark is made as low as now. This is a mistake. The first bale of cotton I ever witnessed sold in Raymond was in 1844, [just fifty years ago], and it sold at the price prevailing at the period, and that was 4 cents per pound. And then every acre of land cultivated in this country produced five bales, and every hand that went to the field produced from ten to fifteen bales. Corn then sold at 25 cents per bushel, home-made meat at 4 cents, potatoes at 25 cents, meat at 40 cents, flour at $5, etc., and our tax was 10 cents on every dollar. One-fourth of the amount we now pay."

"W. L. SHARKEY, W. A. LEAKE, P. W. TOMKINS, AMOS R. JOHNSON and PATRICK HENRY were then the great favorites of the Whip party in this section of the state, while H. S. FOOTE, A. G. BROWN, Governor McNITT, R. W. ROBERTS and others were at the head of the Democratic party."

THAT'S WHAT! Archbishop Corrigan, in his address to the German Catholic Verein Tuesday, September 10th, told them that the war was greater than any state or territory.

A DECISION That Affects Veterans Who Served in the Gunboat Service.

Commodore Foote's Marine Crews to Lose Their Pensions.

After the Dependent Pension Act Was Passed by Congress, the Marine Crews to Lose Their Pensions.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—Old river men will be surprised to learn that the pension office has ruled out of the benefits of what is known as the dependent pension act those veterans who served in the gunboat flotilla crews. This ruling applies as well to the ram fleet and the marine brigade.

There were with Commodore Foote in the fresh-water naval service on the Mississippi and other western and southern rivers thousands of men. Survivors are scattered throughout the southwest. After the dependent pension act was passed, veterans of the gunboat service began to put in applications. The question of the rights of these claimants has dragged along with some adverse individual rulings, until Monday it was brought directly to the attention of the pension office for a general decision.

H. K. Hazlett, a pension attorney, addressed a letter to Capt. John A. Duple, well known in Cincinnati, who was in the gunboat service, and who is now a resident of Washington. Mr. Hazlett wrote that the pension office was refusing to grant pensions for this flotilla service to claimants under the law of June, 1860. Capt. Duple was very certain that there must be some mistake on the part of the attorney, but when he applied to the pension office he found that the rule was even more sweeping than the letter represented.

The navy department has reported to the pension office that the gunboat crews were civilian employees, Assistant Secretary Reynolds, of the Interior department, has given an opinion that excludes all but regular enlisted soldiers from pension benefits, and in that way the crews under Foote are knocked out.

"But," asked Capt. Duple, "these men who served with Foote have been recognized under former laws as entitled to the benefits, and many are drawing pensions to-day for wounds and injuries received in this identical service which now is not pensionable. What are you going to do with such cases?"

"We are stopping their pensions as fast as we get to their cases," was the reply of the official representing the pension office.

Capt. Duple says that congress will undoubtedly take up the matter and rectify such gross injustice to the men who were under Foote. He says this is the first time that a technicality has been allowed to shut out the gunboat veterans. He characterizes it as the most unfriendly act the pension office has shown in the interpretation of the dependent pension law.

The Com's Case. WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—In the supreme court of the United States Monday the motion of the government to the advance of Francis A. Coffin and Percival B. Coffin, convicted of misappropriating the funds of the Indianapolis national bank, and now out on bail, pending their appeal, was granted, and the hearing set for the first Monday in December.

Ex-Land Office Receiver shot. MAQUETTE, Mich., Oct. 16.—Thos. D. Meads, ex-receiver of the United States land office here, has been found shot in his accounts. Shortly after the appointment of Meads to the office, he began to receive sums paid to the receiver by the homesteaders, which were not accounted for at Washington. The demand for these claims has reached about $2,000, and they are still coming in.

Columbian Hires. WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—The demand for Washington half dollars is far beyond the expectation of the treasury officials. The indications are now that the supply for fall alone will be the demand. At the subtreasury in New York $500,000 in these coins were exchanged for gold during the first three days they were on sale. The demand in Washington is also unexpectedly heavy.

Gold Going Again. WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—United States Treasurer Morgan Monday received a telegram from Assistant Treasurer Jordan, at New York, stating that $500,000 in gold had been loaned from the subtreasury for export. This is the first withdrawal of any importance that has been made since August 1st, and this news has had a quieting effect among treasury officials.

France Expels Bull-Fighters. PARIS, Oct. 16.—The minister of the Interior, M. Dupuy (who is also premier), has ordered the expulsion from France of six Spanish toreros who were allowed to fight at the department of Gard, and at Dax, department of Landes, Sunday, at which bulls were killed in defiance of the law prohibiting such contests.

Levi F. Morton's Servants. NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—The arrest and detention of Levi F. Morton's imported English coachman, under the contract labor law, has led to the knowledge that Mr. Morton employs forty-two persons in and about his Rhinecliff home and its 900 acres, and that he classifies them as servants.

Double Tragedy. PERRY, Oct. 16.—As the result of a dispute over land, Geo. F. Rohr, formerly mayor of Arkansas, was shot and killed, Monday, by Prof. E. T. Hand, principal of Kildare high school, who soon afterwards became insane.

LABOR'S TRIALS.

strikes, Machinery and Female Employment to be favored by the government.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—The bureau of labor has now under way three investigations, bearing upon economic questions, that will be as important in their results as anything undertaken by the department since its organization. The work further advanced is an investigation of the time delay in the last several years, the volume being intended as a supplement to a report made the year previous. Although this work covers a period of seven years, the most important strikes of that time occurred recently at Westmead and around Chicago. Nothing but the facts will be dealt with, and will incorporate such data as the number of men who went out on strike, the duration of their idleness, the amount of wages lost, the loss of employees, the cause of the various strikes, etc.

Another inquiry ordered by congress, the work of which is now being planned, is the effect of machinery on labor. This, of course, involves a study of the modern industrial system and a phase of the question in which the workmen of the country will be intensely interested. The most interesting part of the bureau might be necessary to properly carry out this investigation.

Trade organizations will likewise be greatly interested in the line of inquiry, which, however, will not be commenced before next summer. This investigation will take in the most interesting field of the relations of women to industry. Necessary it involves a study of all branches of our national industry in which women are now employed, or for which they are adapted; the ascertainment of facts going to show where and how they have displaced men, the capacity of a woman to contest for a livelihood in the industrial world and her earning capacity.

SOUTHERN ROAD

Now Under the Control of the C. H. & D. Management.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 16.—The much anticipated annual election of the Cincinnati Southern road was held Monday. At last the question as to who should be the final decision has been in a measure settled. The meeting was held upon the fifth floor of the Odd Fellows' temple, where the executive offices of the C. H. & D. P. railroad are situated. The balloting took place in the large engine room, and they were crowded with stockholders, railroad men, lawyers and the trustees of the road.

There was but one printed ticket that of the nine held by the C. H. & D. contingent, and M. J. Greenough, of New York, presented names of nine other gentlemen to be voted for. These gentlemen had been chosen by the Southern railway, Drexel & Morgan party, who have ever since been possessed of the Alabama Great Southern road, been endeavoring to gain control of the C. H. & D. P. road, and had made an offer of $500,000 more than they paid for the majority of the Cincinnati extension bonds to the C. H. & D. syndicate for the Cincinnati Southern, but the C. H. & D. people remained firm in their determination to own the Southern and were not to be foreseen by an Extended Signal Service.

GULF STORMS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—The work of the weather bureau in reporting the rise and progress of the hurricane that swept up the Atlantic coast a short time ago, and the consequent saving of hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of shipping and property, and the inability of the bureau to give notice to the gulf states of the approach of the hurricane, has drawn and caused the bureau to extend its signal service system down the gulf coast to Yucatan. The weather bureau officials say that every year at least one of the disastrous storms arises in the Caribbean sea or the Bay of Yucatan, and cause sweeping down on the coast of Louisiana, Texas, Alabama and other southern states when they are totally unprepared for it.

The gulf storms are to be forecast by the extended signal service, and those interested in shipping notified in advance.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 16.—Judge Jenkins' decision which was filed in the United States court confirmed that portion of Special Master's Cary's report which condemns Receiver Oakes. Upon examining them, the police found that they contained a perfect arsenal of anarchist weapons, including various bombs, explosives, old arms and armor, skeleton keys and burglar tools.

Fatally Cut at a Festival. LA GRANGE, Ky., Oct. 16.—At a Negro festival here, Will D. Johnson, lately cut Rich Pinkston. In a general fight several others were more or less injured.

PRINCETON, Ky., Oct. 16.—Willis Griffith, colored, who outraged a woman, and who was hanged two weeks ago from Christian county for safe keeping, was taken from the county jail Sunday midnight by a mob and hanged two miles south of town.

ROCKPORT, Ind., Oct. 16.—Sunday night at 12 o'clock Robert Burr shot and killed Arthur Williamson. The two men are about 25 years old. They left a saloon together, and after walking a block Williamson said they must make their trouble. Williamson then made a move to draw a weapon, when Burr drew a revolver and shot Williamson in the left eye, the ball going through his head, coming from behind him the right ear. He was instantly killed.

Williamson was an engineer on the L. & E. St. L. R. R., and leaves a family. He had worked hard to pay off a mortgage on his father's home, and recently paid it off and presented it to his mother, nicely furnished. Burr is a member of an aristocratic family.

Both are well known. Burr is in jail and is in danger of being lynched. The trouble was Burr's intimacy with Mrs. Williamson. The murdered man and his wife had separated, and she was in Owensboro, Ky. Burr's family claim to be descendants of Aaron Burr. Williamson was unmarried when picked up.

A colored festival was being held at the home of George Gentry, when about 11 o'clock a party composed of colored and white men and boys, among whom were Dick Bailey, Dutch Benson, Will Vich and George L. White, and Sam Lee, colored, surrounded the house and began firing into the building with shotguns and pistols. The party inside responded. For twenty or thirty minutes the air was bright with the flash of pistol and flare of bonfire.

At the end of that time both sides betook themselves to parts unknown, carrying with them their wounded. Among those who were more seriously shot will be Will Wilson, James Robb, Joe Gentry, John Thomas, Will Walters and Bob Williams (colored) and Will Vich (white). Some of the white men were really boys from 18 to 23 years of age. The doctors have little hope for the recovery of Will Wilson and Will Vich, while others of the wounded may also die. ## SLOW POISON.

The Czar Lying at the Point of Death.

Has The Russian Ruler Been Skillfully Poisoned by Scientific Means?

The Story of Dr. Von Schmidt, the German Traveler—Dispatches Received From the Russian Capital in Sympathetic Ink and a Secret Code.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 16.—Has the czar of all the Russias been skillfully poisoned and slowly put to death by scientific means in the hands of nihilists? Dr. George F. V. Schmidt, the German traveler, who in Minneapolis, has just received secret dispatches from St. Petersburg, which throw a strong light on the crisis in European politics caused by the impending death of the czar. These dispatches came written in sympathetic ink on apparently blank pieces of paper. The application of heat brought out some strange stenographic characters which the doctor readily translated. He showed these dispatches to an Associated press reporter Monday and remarked that in order to send such things from St. Petersburg it was necessary to doubly protect them by the use of sympathetic ink and a secret code.

The most sensational matter in the dispatch is the intimation that the czar's illness has been caused by other than natural means. The doctor translates the dispatch to the Associated press as follows:

"The czar is lying at the point of death. The excitement of the highest circles of the empire is simply tremendous. It is understood in a wide circle in Russia that the czar's sickness was brought about by scientific means and that his death would not be a natural one. It is on account of this that the journals contradict the fact of the czar's sickness. There is a party that wants to set the czarowitz on the throne. The czarowitz, of a cranky and melancholy nature, is inclined to institute the most radical reforms throughout Russia, and has already made plans for such action. He is very much hated by the clergy. The patriarch of Moscow, who is at the head of the Greek church, has traveled about with the czar in order to persuade him to put his second son on the throne instead of the czarowitz. The Greek church of Russia is feverishly excited. The rearshear or council of the empire is daily holding secret council. The czarowitz party is with the church and against the czarowitz, who is a great friend of Germany. Should the czar decide to place his second son upon the throne this would be looked upon as direct insult to Germany and would be dealt with the most serious results. Miss Anna Mattingly of Plumville was the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Nancy Mattingly, Thursday and Friday.

Several of our young ladies and gentlemen were up near Foxport Sunday chestnut hunting. They reported a fine time.

Dr. T. L. Clark left Friday morning for his home in Grant county, where he will spend a week or so with relatives and friends.

Wonder if Rolla K. Hart is going to conduct a Democratic excursion up Salt River, after the 6th day of November? Who knows?

Mrs. S. A. Bamel, her son Riley and her daughter, Miss Mollie, are at home here a pleasant visit to relatives and friends near Pisgah, Woodford county.

The report is that we are going to witness a wedding soon. One of our young gentlemen will claim one of the loveliest young ladies near Plumville as his bride. In advance please accept our best wishes.

W. B. Bridgeford, a well known Populist leader, and Judge W. L. Jett, a Democratic politician, had a fight at Frankfort. Jett was chock full of liquid democracy and made a verbal assault on Bridgeford for the part the latter took in the late campaign against Colonel Breckinridge. Bridgeford ordered Jett out of his place of business. Jett became so angered at this that he advanced upon his adversary and was in the act of striking him with a knife when the latter seized a large iron weight and struck Jett on the back of the head. Not hurt much.
